

COMMUNITY SERVICE GRANTS & SCHOLARSHIPS

Northwest Tae Kwon Do received a grant for the Pil Sung Youth Martial Arts Program from the Pierce County Commission on Youth and Families for their "Youth Martial Arts Program". For more information, please Ric Gordon

Pil Sung Youth Martial Art Scholarship Program

Martial Art schools and/or individuals are eligible to receive scholarships for up to two youth karate students every six months or four per year. Scholarship forms can be requested from the Northwest Tae Kwon Do Association office.

How does it work?

- A Martial Art School must be an affiliated school with PNWAAU, a cost of $50.00 per year.
- Scholarships are given to the most needy applicants.
- Scholarships are granted for the amount of $100.00.
- School agrees to train said student for a period of not less than 5 months for the scholarship amount ($100.00).
- If student quits before five months are up, balance of scholarship is sent back to Northwest Tae Kwon Do Association.
- Scholarships can be granted any time of the year, applicants are reviewed monthly.
- As funds are secured for this program, scholarships are approved. ALL secured funds for this program are used 100% for this program.
- Annual Shawn Denton Friendship Award and $500.00 scholarship.
- Annual Chris Canning $1,000.00 National Scholarship and $250.00 Washington scholarship.
